

About GreTai

GreTai Securities Market was established on November 1, 1994, in accordance with the provisions of the Securities and Exchange Act. GTSM's initial funds were contributed by the Taiwan Securities Association, the Taiwan Stock Exchange and the Taiwan Depository & Clearing Corporation. GTSM's Board of Directors enjoys a high degree of independence and is dedicated to public welfare. No more than one third of the Board members may be held by the organizations of the initial donators, and at least one third of the Board members must represent members of the Taiwan Securities Association.

GreTai has always been guided by our missions of providing "expanded capital access and solid investment venue." With our strategy in ensuring information transparency, fair trading practices, and greater financial diversification, we are committed to offering as a top-quality platform where innovation drives progress and more options are provided to corporations and investors.

As one of the securities exchanges in Taiwan, GreTai Securities Market (GTSM) has long been dedicated to assisting high-tech, micro enterprises to become listed and to raise capital from a comprehensive range of investors. It has been our goal to establish GTSM as a diversified exchange, currently consisting of three main markets, Emerging Stock Board (ESB), GTSM Main Board, and bond market. Throughout our efforts since 1994, there are many micro enterprises growing up and expanding by registering on ESB and listing on GTSM Main Board. In the respect of trading system, GTSM is striving to incorporate electronic auction trading and over-the-counter negotiated trading systems, which therefore allow more varieties of products, such as stocks, bonds, ETF, TDR and derivatives, to be traded on our platforms. As for bond and derivatives market, the Electronic Bond Trading System (EBTS) and the derivatives trading platform have satisfied investors' needs in the fashion of diversified trading means.

